Constitution

of the Institute of Minecraft Studies

Signatories:

Enacted on: 14/10/2026

§1. Values

(1). All members are entitled to the following basic rights:

a. intellectual safety;

b. equal opportunity regardless of status, and

c. respect in challenge.

(2). No member shall discriminate, use hateful speech, make threats, or otherwise make other members feel uncomfortable.

§2. Admins and moderators

(1). References to “administrative team” or “admin team” in this constitution mean the agreed opinion of all IMS admins that are active.

(2). References to “IMS admin” or simply “admin” in this constitution refer to any individual admin.

(3). Admins shall have full administrative control of the main IMS server.

(4). Admins may be appointed by any of the following methods:

a. Any admin can nominate any member of the IMS to be an admin. The member may become an Admin through a simple majority of a server-wide vote.

(5). Moderators can be appointed by the administrative team.

(6). The powers of the moderators may be removed or added to on the admin team’s discretion.

§3. Departments

(1). All mention of “department” in this constitution refer to an official department of the IMS, which satisfies all of the following:

a. If a Discord server (or other discussion platform where a sole owner exists) is used, an IMS admin must have ownership.

b. Written and signed approval has been given by the admin team.

c. The department is on the official page of all IMS departments.

(2). Departments must be approved before using any branding related to the IMS.

(3). Any member is allowed to start a department by directly contacting any IMS admin.

a. Departments will be approved on discretion of the administrative team.

(4). The administrative team reserves the right to disband and disallow any department.

a. The administrative team, however, is not allowed to disband or disallow a department unless it:

1. has gone rogue, or the admin team believes it has gone rogue, or
2. will damage the reputation of the IMS if allowed to continue its operations.

(5). Admins must not intervene in the daily running of any department.

(6). Departments may establish their own constitution and rules, provided they are not against the values of the IMS (see §1) and will not result in damaging the reputation of the IMS.

(7). Departments are not required to have one leader, or any leader.

(8). Departments are entitled to the following:

a. Being included in a dedicated section for departments in the main IMS server, which must include at least:
    1. A description of the department;
    2. Links to any staff applications (or other relevant positions), and
    3. A link to the Discord server (or other discussion platform used);
b. Equal, dedicated time in general IMS meetings;
c. Making announcements to the main IMS server if is relevant to the entire IMS community, and
d. Being represented in the IMS website.

(9). Department leaders are entitled to request information (such as admin actions) from the administrative team if it is relevant to their department.

§4. Elections

(1). If a department has any kind of leader that needs to be elected, they must be elected through the main IMS server.

(2). The elections officer must not be a staff member of said department.

(3). If practical, all elections shall be done through proportional, secret voting.

§5. Amendments

(1). Amendments to this constitution may be done through:

a. Agreement by the admin team, or
b. Majority in a server-wide vote initiated by a member (or group of members), which must be approved first by the admin team.
